Will And Favorite Sayings

Nora Adams: U-la-la, I leave my lunch sack to Ellen Detmar.
Tammy Almzot: You turkey, I donate all my knowledge I have learned at Warren Center to Chris Conzelman. And I leave the domain of C.C.H.S. to the rug-rats of 83, if it lasts that long.
Dawn Anderson: I think I'll go to Minnesota. To Scott Yanchunis and Steve Cullar I leave the Gilpin County bus with thoughts of where they can shove it.
Ricky Ball: To all the cowboys I leave all the long hairs for you to do what's needed.
Anna Bielz: To Heidi Lorenz I leave a full length mirror.
Judy Branecki: Zoom, Zoom, Zoom, I leave Cindee Schmaltz, Johnson with hopes she will have fun with him and to Rocky I leave my backless shirt.
Clifford Campbell: When are we going to leave. To the juniors I leave the hassles of this school, the frown of Mr. Dallas, and the great school spirit of Homecoming Week.
Rusty Craft: I leave my ability to argue with teachers to anyone that can do it and still get an "A" in that class.
Troy Denning: Let's go eat. I leave practice in the snow to next year's football players.
Sue Dodson: I leave our ability to party on the fourth floor and not get caught.
Bob Frank: To Mike Paulson (cotton top) I leave my dark hair and troubles with Mr. Dallas.
John Frank: To Chuck I leave one big full can of CHEW. Have fun spitting on the floor!
Cherylyn Freiwald: Gooddammit! I leave this school and its teachers and rug-rats to anyone who wants it!
Paul Gochis: That's great. . . just great. To Randy Newberry I leave three tickets and 18 points with hopes he uses them better than I did.
Russell Hartman: Spastic Hama, To Keith Hicks I leave my skoal can collection. To Miss Thomas my pep club language, and to the junior class I leave Mr. Fowler, "The Prowler!"
Don Henson: it! I leave nothing.
Rock Hodgson: Is the gym open? To the rest of the under classmen I leave you John Hallberg's big mouth and smart-ass comments. And I leave to Miss Smith, John Klieforth who has had a crush on you for the last two years . . . Good Luck!
Donna Huth: I don't know. To Hallberg I leave the right to Christen someone else with sainthood! Saint Donna Huth.
Ursula Illig: Don't be sorry, just don't ever do it again. To Miss Thomas I leave my 4½" platforms.
Kent Jones: I leave my keyboards to fellow homo-keyboardians and my tuba to Warble and his chops. (He's the only one with a big enough mouth.)
Carol Jorgensen: Let's get stoned. I leave my volleyball skills to all three of my sisters.
Vicky Kruger: To all the students of C.C.H.S. "Good Luck" trying to get an "A" in Dallas' class.
Mandy King: Hi guys! I leave my perfect driving record to Tammy Robertson in hopes that it will come in handy.
Tammy Lala: To Miss Smith I leave all her papers so she can grade them herself next year.
Sherry Lamb: I leave to Idaho Springs everything I found when I came here.
Denise Lohman: Hey Rowdy! To Mr. Supple I leave all my weird paintings and my talent. To the school I leave echoes of my cartoons.
Dave Lukers: To Coach Bennett, Klieforth and Fowler I leave their devensive slide, circle drills, and attitude adjustment drills in hopes they can find something better to do with them.
Cindy Mosch: To Mr. Dallas I leave my little sister Sue Ann.
Kent McGlasson: State or bust! I leave my ability to go to state in wrestling to Ronnie Burr. I leave my ability to get kicked out of football games to Roman Haskins, and I leave a big "Howl" to Mr. Howel.
Mike New: Shut-up! I leave my knowledge or machine tools to Mr. Horner, who needs all the help he can get.
Kurt Neilson: To the class of "78" I leave this dreadful school. And the sorrow that you couldn't leave too.
Tony Newberry: You dink! To Coach Bennett I leave 5" high heels in hopes he will reach 5'2".
Beth Nibbe: To Mr. Yedinak I leave my body. May he dissect in good health. To Mrs. Johnson I leave one crummy soprano section. Have fun teaching them how to sing!
Mark Pacheco: Shut-up Gorp! To Jeff Wright I leave my S.M. hat and my boxing abilities.
Mary Palmer: I leave the Gilpin County bus to Julie Cullar in hopes she doesn't have to ride it next year.
Terry Pennell: Hey man! I leave my wide-open schedule to any junior that can handle it.
Debbie Perkins: Isn't that cute! I will Paula Hodgson to Mr. Supple.
Jeff Powers: What? To nephan I leave my ability to drink, cut class, ditch school and get caught.
Julie Pretz: Isn't anybody rowdy? To this school I leave a match in hopes it will burn down.
Willie Prickett: Rich, let's go party! To Bob Walcott . . . may he use all of my excuses and get away with them and grow a few feet in his party years to come.
Tammy Saylor: Shiestz! I leave the Gilpin County bus to whoever is crazy enough to ride it.
Tom Sawyer: To be or not to be. I will my thinking ability to Larry Payne. (He will need it!)
Jim Slavens: I leave the dreaded course of the school lunch to Mike Dallas and Gary Rucker.
Donna Smith: You Turkey! I leave my car to my brother.
Sari Thurlow: Let's check this out. I leave to Mr. Klieforth my shorthand and typing abilities in hopes that someday he'll be a good reference. I also leave my cheerleading uniform to Mr. Hallberg.
Chris Tomford: Christ, that's revolting. I leave my four-wheelin' ability to anyone who's crazy enough to drive a jeep all the places I have driven mine.
Joyce Vieweg: That's super! I leave my skiing ability to my brother, and my math courses to Charlie Klien.
Steve Watts: Goatroper! I leave my best friend Chuck Sambs to whoever can stand him. Bye Chuck Chuck.
Otto Walcott: Let's go Skip? I leave the 1/4 mile stretch on-chicago creeks, to anyone you have better luck ditching than I did.
Cindy Werlin: Where's the Skip? I leave the 1/4 mile stretch up Chicago Creek to anyone fast enough to handle it.
Doug White: Oh, really! I leave to the Seniors next year anybody who can handle as much beer as Chris, Tomford, and I.
Elizabeth Ziegler: Where's the beer? I leave to Sambs my detention to do with what he pleases, but not giving it to me was his constant mistake.

From the Senior Class to Mr. Hallberg . . .
Sit on it!!

The first part of the document discusses the importance of maintaining accurate records in a laboratory setting. It emphasizes the need for clear labeling and organization of samples and reagents. The second part details the procedures for handling hazardous materials, including the use of personal protective equipment and proper disposal methods. The third part covers the calibration and maintenance of laboratory instruments to ensure the accuracy and reliability of experimental results. Finally, the document concludes with a summary of the key points and a list of references for further reading.
