Mock Trial

There is some courtroom magic this year with the case "State of Colorado vs Whitney Dwight"

Years ago, following a brutal robbery at the Fort Collins Farmers' Market, a promising young street performer named Jeni Hendrickson died. This year, the cold case squad re-opened the murder investigation of her death and focused on some ragtag magicians, the Dominoes, 5 performers lead by the charismatic Kex. After her death, the Dominoes disbanded and scattered. One of them, Whitney Dwight, The Wiz, clever & easily influenced, now has been charged with Jeni's murder. The Mock Trial team will discuss the robbery.

Class Song

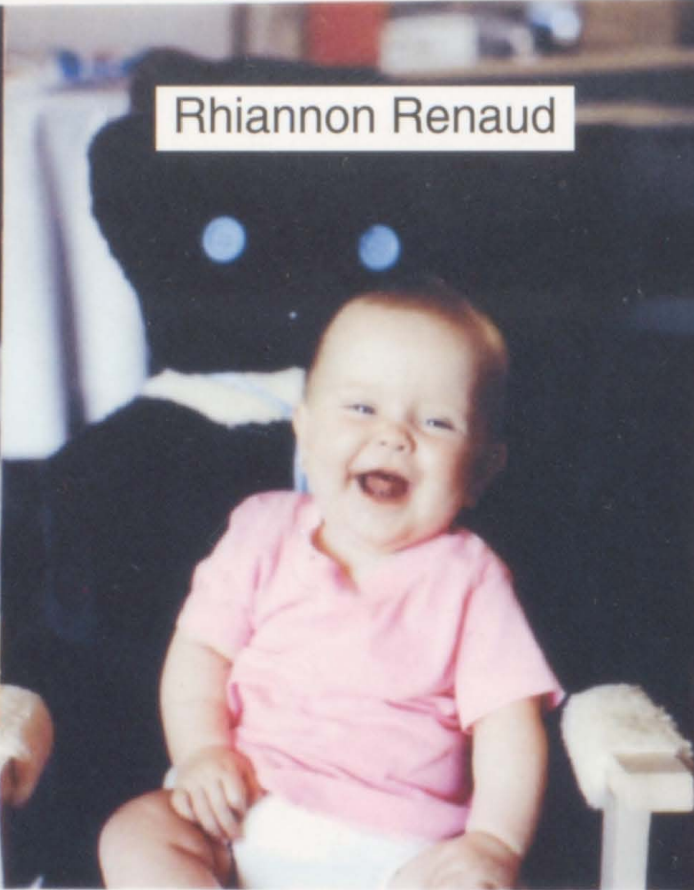

Wish You Were Here

By Pink Floyd
From the Album *Wish
You Were Here*

Like the long-asked adage, "What do you get the man who has everything?", one must ask, "What do you say about the class that has everything?" Well, for starters, this year's Seniors are indubitably the coolest class to ever exist, and we have some one who's 6'7". If that's not how you spell "awesome", I have no idea how to. And as these esteemed colleagues depart Clear Creek to make their proverbial "mark" on society, we wish them, and society, the best of luck. Like Yogi Berra said, "It's tough to make predictions, especially about the future." But be that as it may, I have no doubt that this class will have all the opportunities they will ever need in their life, because, like the equally sagacious Yogi Bear said, "I'm smarter than the av-er-age bear," which I believe applies to this entire class. So, I bid you farewell, adios, au revoir, and sayonara, and I'll see you all on the other side.
