CLASS WILL

Tony Anderson leaves his one-handed driving ability to Bob Peart.
Joyce Baker leaves her good looks to most any one in high school.

Put them to good use.

Frank Brack leaves his skiing ability to Ranger Lee to encourage his amateur skiers.

Jo Ann Curtis leaves her freckles to Arlene Payne. Think they'll look cute?

Dorothy Eggers leaves her desire to be a nurse to some lucky girl.

George Erickson leaves his steadfastness to Dickie Wambaugh.

Richard Gould leaves his Model A to Burt Bell--just in case.

Jim Grenfell is willing his afternoons off to Nancee Hull. She'd love to have them.

Dee Howard leaves her cartons of chewing gum and jaw breakers to Mrs. Canady for the purpose of distributing to her business classes.

Marjorie Johnson leaves, but refuses to give her bookkeeping to anyone.

Marjorie Jones is leaving her intelligence to be distributed among the Junior class so that they may graduate next year.

Warren Jones leaves for the School of Mines.

Johnny Mankin is leaving for the Navy. Good luck, John.

Margie McGarvey wills her shorthand and everything about it back to the school.

Chuck Mullenax leaves his wavy hair to Pat Dornon.

Tom Neeper leaves his height to Robert Chiles. We hope it will be just what he needs to become a star basketball player.

Ethel Mae Northrop leaves her ability to study to David Vigil. Try it, David.

Jack Pershin leaves his job as typist on the Echo to Frank Rice.

Pat Peterson wills her home-spun sense of humor to Alvena Hood.

Mae Dee Shackelton wants Richard Axelson to give her some of his speed, and she wills him some of her accuracy-in typing, that is.

Howard Skov would like some boy, who can put it to good use, to have his nice smile.

Eugene Sorenson leaves his manly physique to Richard Gallegos, so that he may be able to tackle those big players next year.

Alice Tomlin leaves her ability to love 'em and leave 'em to D. T.

Ray Troxel just wants to leave.

Justin Verhoeff leaves his good looks to the boys in high school who think they can use them.

Marianne Wagner leaves her lady-like manners to whoever is voted the most rowdy girl in school.

Lefty Yost just leaves, and is glad of it--except for a certain person. Stan has to give up Pat for awhile, but we're pretty certain that he'll be back for her.

PROPHECY

Tony Anderson is the owner of a fleet of moving vans. He finds it more satisfactory to move for a living than to move for love.

Joyce Baker is still running through the Tennessee hills chasing Navy Recruit Officers with her trusty B-B gun.

Since Kay Don Bjorklund won the "best actor" of 1948, in the I. S. H. S. Popularity Contest, he has gone far in Paramount's new picture, "Hold on Pa, We're Going Places Tonight."

Missed Frank Brack? He's now the U. S. Ambassador to the Soviet Union. He's restrained by the Iron Curtain.

Jo Ann Curtis has been working diligently in school trying to become an interior decorator so that she may earn the money to go back to Redfield.

Dorothy Eggers is Head Nurse at the new Idaho Springs Hospital. There is one patient who just won't seem to get well.

George Erickson has taken Bob Hope's place in radio as America's No. 1 comedian.

Richard Gould has turned out to be a really big hot shot. He's the president of the "Woman Haters' Association." His latest book, HOW TO REMAIN A BACHELOR IN TEN EASY LESSONS, is a best seller.

Jim Grenfell has his own Drive-In Theatre, and I hear he'll even furnish you with the cars from his used car lot next door.

Dee Howard now has Paul, and they run their own little horseburger-shop, "The Six and Derby."

Marjorie Johnson is chief bookkeeper in her own department store, but her address has changed from I. S. to Saks, Fifth Avenue.

Marjorie Jones was elected as the senior girl most likely to succeed, and she's proving it now as the youngest Dean of Girls C. U. has ever had.

Have you noticed all those holes in the Joneses' yard? That's just Warren catching up on his home work as a student at the School of Mines.

John Mankin has his own cafe, specializing in liquid beverages, and is famous for his motto, "Duck in, gobble up, and wobble out."

Margie McGarvey is still saying, "I can't", but we see her a huge success as the first lady of the Clear Creek County Court House - that is, as the sheriff's wife.

Chuck Mullenax is now the owner of the largest ranch in Colorado. In place of his trusty Chev., he now cruises around in an Olds.

Due to the experience Tom Neeper acquired as advertising manager for the Annual, he is now advertising manager for Squabbles Dental Co.

Ethel Mae Northrop has become one of the most important stockholders of the Rutherford Stables, Inc. address, Georgetown.

Jack Pershin is still changing oil. Wonder what he'll be changing next!

Pat Peterson is still polishing her Hope Chest - waiting for her man to complete his stretch---in the Navy, that is.

Mae Dee Shackelton still has her quiet manner, but as superintendent of

PROPHECY

I. S. H., we can see it has paid off well. Mae Dee has taken Mr. Kellenbenz's place.

Howard Skov is very busy nowadays. He's instructing the high school boys in the art of manipulating automobiles around gas pumps.

Eugene Sorensen is giving Arthur Murray tough competition with his dancing school directly across the street.

Alice Tomlin is securely "set" in the White House as President Truman's private secretary and accompanist for Miss Margaret.

Ray Troxel has overcome his shyness for business subjects, and is now head accountant for "Buy Here and Wow'em Sporting Goods Co."

Justin Verhoeff is a charter member in Richard's "Woman Haters' Club."
No chance there, girls.

Marianne Wagner is now the richest matron in I. S., and a prominent socialite. We understand her high school savings were the foundation for her wealth.

Stan Wells is still going to school. Like it that well, Stan, or just waiting for Pat?

Lefty Yost said he was going to join the Navy, but there's an awfully well-beaten path to the Cole residence.

CLASS HISTORY

In September 1937, some forty little hillbillies in the first pair of shoes went down from the hills to the little red school house at Idaho Springs. Of these, six remain: Tony Anderson, Dorothy Eggers, Marjorie Jones, Warren Jones, Howard Skov, and Alice Tomlin. Miss Marguerite Lackner tried for the next nine months to teach us the A. B. C's.

Then we were turned over to Miss Margaret Carlson, who experimented with teaching us simple addition. John Mankin and Marianne Wagner joined the group that year.

In our third stage, with Tom Neeper added to the class and Miss Pearl Ford replacing Miss Carlson, multiplication raised its ugly head to vex us.

After a hard struggle, we reached the fourth grade where Mrs. Vivian Tippet Harvey startled us with the fact that there were people living outside the United States which we should study in geography.

As we entered our fifth year, Miss Lela Cason launched us on our social life with square dancing and ice-skating parties. George Erickson joined our group that year.

Our sixth try at school was hectic, and a memorable one. Mrs. Lana Bentzen struggled with us in the mornings, but turned us over to Mrs. Margret Keplinger in the afternoons. Mrs. Keplinger had to struggle with us all day during the last half of the year, after Mrs. Bentzen left.

When these educated hillbillies started upon their Junior High career, Miss Louise Scherrer became our guiding hand. Alice Tomlin rejoined us after a three-year visit in California

In our eighth year, our reputation was at its highest. Even the seniors feared these wild dogpatchers. Pat Peterson and Ethel Mae Northrop joined this renowned group at this stage.

CLASS HISTORY

As Freshmen, we had a hilarious initiation. The other high school students made us dress silly and carry pails and wash tubs. Joyce Baker, Jo Ann Curtis, Richard Gould, Dee Howard and Margie McGarvey were new members of that year. The girls put life into the Pep Club, and the boys were started on their athletic careers. Our reputation for putting on successful school parties was established and kept throughout high school. Mrs. Belle Schneider was our sponsor.

As we confidently entered upon our sophomore year, we added Kay Don Bjorklund, Jim Grenfell, Jack Pershin, Eugene Sorensen, and Stanley Wells to our roll. For the second consecutive year we won first prize for the best Purple and Gold Day float. Mrs. Elizabeth Nicholson Stage directed our activities.

In our Junior year, we presented the comedy, "Dear Ruth," for our class play, and it was a huge success. The Junior Prom and Banquet was held April 24, 1948, at the Radium Hot Springs Hotel. The theme was "In An Old Dutch Garden."

Despite the deep snows which hounded all our activities, they were very merry occasions. Lefty Yost, Ray Troxel, and Justin Verhoeff joined us that year. Our helping hand came from Mrs. Vida Cannady.

Our roll recently added Charles Mullenax, Marjorie Johnson, and Mae Dee Shackelton. Our annual, in our opinion, will be the best ever put out, a credit to the school. We anticipate that our play will be a successful endeavor. Instead of the senior reception we are planning a barbeque for the juniors. The juniors have scheduled the usual prom in our honor. May 27 is Class Night, May 29 is Baccalaureate, and on June 2, we will receive the diplomas which will declare that we are educated citizens of the Class of '49 of Idaho Springs High School, ready to fill our places in the world

GLEE CLUB

During the year the High School Glee Club have had a wonderful time working with Mr. Schneider. Included in their performances were the "Pep Club Variety Show" and the Mountain Valley League music festival. Graduation music is being prepared.

The mixed chorus has met every Wednesday to combine their voices in joyful singing and harmonizing. Both the senior boys and girls will miss this activity.

SKI CLUB

The I. S. H. S. Ski Club has gone on several ski excursions this year. Most of them have been to Loveland Pass where everyone had lots of fun and oodles of falls. Most of the boys and girls that went, though, seemed to learn a great deal, and will probably turn out to be good skiers, eventually.

Officers were elected at the first meeting of the year. President, Tony Anderson; Secretary-Treasurer, Alice Tomlin.

Our last ski trip was on March 2, 1949. Everyone enjoyed this final outing very much. We are indeed grateful to Mr. Kellenbenz for allowing us this pleasure and to Mr. Attleson for being our sponsor. Also thanks to the teachers who let us go.

JUNIOR RED

CROSS COUNCIL

The Junior Red Cross Council held a very successful enrollment drive this year. It has also enlisted the fifth and sixth grades in making a correspondence album to send overseas. It is hoped that the council will be able to do some work for the veteran's hospitals this year. A substantial fund has been built up for local use in projects. The seventh grade won a mallet for the highest enrollment in the drive.

The council consists of Shirley Foster, Carole Lee, Joanne Pershin, Elaine Mullenax, Alvena Hood, Howard Shov.

President, Marjorie Jones; Vice President, Jo Ann Curtis, Secretary-Treasurer, Ethel Mae Northrop.

THE LIBRARY CLUB

The Library Club of Idaho Springs High School is made up of students from both junior and senior high, who are interested in books and in helping to serve their classmates in the library. The officers are: President, Barbara Keeler; Vice President, Alvena Hood; Secretary-Treasurer, Arlene Smith.

The aims of the Library Club are to interest people in reading more and better books, in keeping the library in good condition, and in assisting students in finding references and good books.

Among the social events of the year was a Christmas party at the home of Miss Carlson. The Library Club was responsible for an assembly, and the one act comedy was given, "When Shakespear's Ladies Meet" by Charles George.
